Indonesia Apologizes for Burning British Embassy

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Faced with a British break in diplomatic relations and prodded by Washington, Indonesia expressed regret today for the mob burning and looting of the British Embassy and other property.

Strong forces of Indonesian troops appeared to have restored order in this capital after Wednesday's rampage by about 10,000 Indonesians protesting against the new, British-sponsored Federation of Malaysia. But in the uneasy calm, British women and children were preparing to quit Indonesia. President Sukarno's government issued a conciliatory statement, deploring the mob violence, worst demonstration ever staged here against a foreign power. British Foreign Secretary Lord Home had denounced "such uncivilized behavior" and threatened to sever diplomatic relations unless as-

Quints' Fortunes Continue To Grow

ABERDEEN, S.D. (AP) — The Fischer quintuplets squirmed and squaled in their hospital nursery today while their fortunes and chances for survival continued to mount.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fischer, parents of the four girls and a boy, got good news from several directions Wednesday:

house costing up to $100,000. A potful of money (some say about $50,000) is coming their way for an exclusive contract signed with the Curtis Publishing Co.

Authorities at St. Luke's Hospital reported the quintts still improving, eating more and showing lots of life in their isolettes. It is estimated that gifts and money received by the family so far total some $50,000.

E. C. Pieplow, president of the Aberdeen Chamber of Commerce, told a news conference Wednesday night that the Fischer family has accepted the chamber offer to build the home, which may cost up to the $100,000 mark.

The site and size of the home have yet to be determined. Don Schanche, managing editor of the Saturday Evening Post, announced that Curtis has secured radio, television and publishing rights to stories and pictures about the famous quintts.

He refused to disclose any details of the agreement. Unofficial reports set the purchase price at about $50,000 for rights to the story for a few issues of the Post and Curtis' Ladies Homes Journal.

Schanche said his company was

Workers Fight Flood Waters

Hurricane Cindy's Effects Are Felt

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — Weary men labored through the night to keep flood waters loosed by departed hurricane Cindy from topping a levee and spilling into the neighboring town of Port Acres.

Cloudbursts of the past two days subsided into occasional light showers. All but a few of several thousand evacuees were able to return and start shoveling mud from soggy homes.

Emphasizing that losses could not be appraised accurately until flood waters finish ebbing, the Jefferson County Civil Defense Council estimated damage might reach $10.5 million.

The council appealed for Texas Gov. John Connally to declare the county, which includes Beaumont and Port Arthur, a disaster area.

Rains measuring up to nearly two feet drained into the Neches River and created the threat to Port Acres, 10 miles south of here and just west of Port Arthur.

Spokesman for the U.S. Engineers said if water topped an eight-foot levee protecting Port Acres, it could gush into 600 of the town's 1,000 homes and rout more than 2,000 people.

Predicting showers for another day or two over southern Louisiana and much of south Texas, the Weather Bureau said the last traces of Cindy should disappear by early Friday at the latest over southwest Texas or northern Mexico.

JFK, Negro Leaders Confer on Race Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy meets today with the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. and six other Negro leaders to discuss the simmering racial situation in Birmingham, Ala.

On Monday, five of the Negroes called on Kennedy to send federal troops to Birmingham to control "civil disorder."

Long weeks of racial tension in the Alabama steel city reached a climax Sunday when a bomb was tossed into a Negro church, killing four children and injuring 25 others. In later incidents the same day, two Negro youths were killed.

In advance of Kennedy's late afternoon meeting with the Negro leaders, many civil rights leaders across the nation called for recognition of next Sunday as a day of national mourning for victims of the Birmingham church bombing.

A bipartisan group of senators, headed by Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, assistant Democratic leader, has introduced a resolution calling on Kennedy to proclaim Sunday "a day of national observance in memory of these children and a day of re-dedication in the nation to the principles of law, quality and tolerance."

The situation in Birmingham brought a call Wednesday from Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, for the federal government to "cut off every nickel and every dime going into Alabama."

Wilkins told a news conference

U.S. Steel Plans Consolidation

Will Unite Seven Operating Divisions

PITTSBURGH (AP)—U.S. Steel Corp. has announced plans to consolidate seven of its general operating divisions in efforts to simplify and streamline the corporate structure.

The seven divisions — American Steel & Wire, Columbia - Geneva Steel, Michigan Limestone, National Tube, Oliver Iron Mining, Pittsburgh Steamship, and Tennessee Coal & Iron — are to be joined under the firm's larger steel producing units of its central operations.

The re-shuffling, announced Wednesday, will begin on Jan. 1, and U.S. Steel said it will bring the divisions "under the direct line management of the corporation's present top officers and executive vice presidents."

"The move," U.S. Steel said, "will be a continuation of a program commenced in 1951. It is designed to improve market participation, reduce costs, and generally enhance the position and performance of United States Steel in serving its customers and the public, and in meeting the intense competition ahead."

Board Chairman Roger M. Blough said the other general operating divisions will remain unchanged because of the specialized nature of their operations.

Salem Man Hurt In Road Mishap

Peter Herman, 49, of 571 Wilson St. was treated for minor injuries at Salem City Hospital after his car went over an embankment Wednesday at 11:30 p. m. on Depot Rd.

The Lisbon post of the State Highway Patrol said the mishap occurred when Herman attempted to keep from hitting another car.

Herman received lacerations of the left side of the face and abrasions of the right side.

The patrol said a car driven by David Davis, 31, of 264 Woodland Ave. pulled from Township Road 737 onto Depot Rd. Herman slammed on his brakes to keep from striking the rear of Davis' car, slid off the left side of the road, struck a guard rail and went over the embankment.

Negro Youths Throw Rocks at Policemen

JACKSON, Mich. (AP)—A mob of Negro teen-agers stoned police Wednesday as helmeted officers tried to prevent racial violence at a new $3-million high school in a predominately white neighborhood.

Later, police fought with several of an estimated 100 to 150 Negro adults who congregated at a residential street corner. No injuries were reported in either incident.

Ten students, including a white girl, were arrested after the hours-long disturbance Wednesday afternoon. Seven white youths were picked up later and released after questioning.

Four policemen were assaulted by a mob of Negro students which also hurled rocks at the patrolmen and at passing cars.

Police Chief Roscoe Gray, who said his "show of force didn't work," dispersed about 18 Negro youths at one point with a fire extinguisher.

The president of the Jackson chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Harold White, asked Gov. George Romney to investigate.

School officials scheduled classes as usual today at the Parkside High School, starting point of the flareups. Police ordered extra patrols for the day.

Dr. Elven Duvall, Jackson school superintendent, planned to appeal to the students in an assembly for an end to the incidents and tension.

The school is located on the southwest side of Jackson, a Southern Michigan city of 56,000. After classes ended Wednesday several hundred students—mostly Negroes—gathered in the parking lot. About six Negro and white girls began shoving each other, witnesses said.

Some 200 Negroes began walking away from the lot, some of them throwing rocks at passing cars and at homes. Others shouted, "This isn't Alabama."

Police said the stones were hurled at them when they tried to disperse the mob. None of the officers reported being hit by the rocks.

1,200 Expected At Dems' Dinner

Over 1,200 are expected at the Columbiana County Democratic Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner Saturday night at the Beaver Local High School, according to final plans made at a meeting of the party executive and central committees Wednesday night at Lisbon.

Vice President Lyndon Johnson will be speaker for the event honoring Rep. Wayne L. Hays, 18th District congressman, for 15 years' service.

Don R. Gosney, county chairman, said on the main platform will be candidates for mayor, city party chairmen and presidents of city and village Democratic clubs, along with the wives of these guests.

He said Rep. Hays, who returned Wednesday from a NATO trip, will be in the district earlier Saturday and will be taken to the Greater Pittsburgh Airport to meet the vice president.

Says Measure Will Strengthen U.S. Dollar

Terms Program Most Important Domestic Issue In 15 Years

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy has urged the people to speak up in support of his tax reduction program. He said its benefits would range from new washing machines for families to new strength around the world for the American dollar and freedom.

"But that bill is in danger of being weakened or deferred," declared Kennedy. "It needs your help, your voice."

Thus through a national radio and television speech, the President sought to light a grassroots fire under Congress on behalf of the $11-billion tax reduction — which he called the most important domestic economic measure in 15 years.

The first major hurdle will come next Wednesday when the House is expected to vote on the tax program. But Kennedy was also looking toward the Senate where the bill faces a stormy time.

Kennedy directed his appeal all along the economic front, from businessmen to factory workers, from families watching their own shaky budgets to citizens worried over the government's unbalanced budget.

He asked for quick passage of the bill without a proposed Republican amendment tying tax cuts to curbs on spending.

Almost as soon as Kennedy finished his address, William E. Miller, Republican national chairman, fired off telegram to the networks asking equal time to reply to the President.

Retorting to GOP charges of fiscal recklessness, Kennedy said: "No wasteful, inefficient or unnecessary government activity will be tolerated on the ground that it helps employment. We are pledged to a course of true fiscal responsibility, leading to a balanced budget."

Much of his appeal was directed to people like the $8,000-a-year family whose prospective benefits he singled out as an example. The head of such a household, he said, could look to the tax cut for for enough extra take home pay to meet "the installments on a new dishwasher for his wife."

Other families, he went on, might prefer to use theirs on "a new spring wardrobe, or a washing machine, or a longer vacation trip, or a down payment on a new car or a new home." And he said the demand so created would help the country "skip a recession" and provide the 10 million jobs needed in the next 2½ years.

Kennedy obviously was looking for some help from Republicans, too.

He said: "This is not a question of party — it is a question of jobs and growth. It is a question of whether our taxpayers and businessmen and workers will get the break they deserve. As the Congress prepares to vote on this issue, I strongly urge you to support this bill for your family's sake and for your country's sake."

The tax proposal that Republicans have put forth would provide that the tax cut, which Kennedy wants to start Jan. 1, would not take effect unless he submitted spending budgets not greater than $97 billion for the present fiscal year.

Who Makes the Improvement?

Leroy Collins, president of the National Association of Broadcasters, has urged newspapers to be aware of a dangerous proposal by the Federal Communications Commission.

The FCC wants authority to regulate the amount of time radio and television broadcasters may use for commercials. Mr. Collins warns that this would be a foot in the door not only for radio and television but for the press.

He candidly admits that improvement is necessary and that the regulations of the National Association of Broadcasters are hard to enforce. But the association is getting stronger and doing better, he declares.

The issue as he sees it is not whether commercials should be made more tolerable than they sometimes are. It is whether the FCC should get its foot in the door, or whether this is another situation where private enterprise is justified in shouting, "Please, Sam, I'd rather do it myself!"

We can get as sore as the next fellow when broadcasters pack so many commercials into a program they ruin it not only for buyers of time who get cheated, but for viewers, whose patience is exhausted.

But surely this is not a reason to let a government agency barge into something where it has no right to be. The FCC is receiving comments on the matter until the end of September. It should not be encouraged to think there is any demand for bureaucratic intrusion.

Better handling of commercials on some broadcasts, yes. More government in broadcasting, no.

It Will Take a Miracle

Even the Negro-baiting Alabama governor who helped to stir up trouble in Birmingham knows now it will take a miracle to save the city from a race-violence disaster.

The mayor of Birmingham knows it. Negro leaders in Birmingham know it.

Those four small Negro girls killed by a bomb in a Baptist church Sunday and the other Negroes killed and injured in a tempest of hate and fear over the weekend have brought the city to a boiling point.

Only a miracle can save it — and where could a miracle be found?

ONE PLACE could be in the hearts of white people in Birmingham and Alabama who do not share the hatred of extremists capable of bombing churches to terrorize Negroes.

These people are not represented in government, due to the numerical importance of anti-Negro voters who line up strongly behind racists like Gov. Wallace. But they are influential in banking, business and society. They have great power when they choose to use it, as they have demonstrated.

The other place could be in the hearts of the Negroes, themselves.

They are imbued with a race with the precepts of Christianity, more so than many of their white persecutors who profess to be Christians but are motivated only by hate, never by love.

THESE PATIENT people have won admiration and respect by their forbearance. They astonished the nation and the world by the dignity they showed in the Freedom March in Washington.

It is symbolic of the terrible thing happening to them that the most brutal attack against them was made while they and their children were at worship.

This is the miracle that could save Birmingham.

It is the miracle that could save America.

Christian love.
Nothing less will do.

YWCA Resumes

This week marked the resumption of activities at the Salem YWCA which, as each new season rolls around, becomes a focal point for programs which have widespread community interest.

Salem hasn't had a Young Women's Christian Association center for too many years but in the brief time that the YW on N. Lincoln Ave. has functioned, it has touched the lives of teen-agers and adults and women as well as men. You, too, can benefit through a membership in the 'Y.'

Nothing less will do.

Now or Later?

The issue over buttoning up summer always shapes up the same way:

Should summer be buttoned up now or later?

Is now the time to store the outdoor furniture for another winter, or will someone be wanting to use it?

Can the screens be taken out now because the windows aren't going to be raised again, or is there more hot weather coming, with 10,000 flies as an extra added attraction?

Does it make sense to uncouple the hose and put it in storage today or will there be further occasions for watering flowers?

Also, what about draining the pool, putting away the picnic table, getting rid of the kites in the garage, picking up the scattered parts of the croquet set and rolling up the hammock?

And what should be done about sun-tan lotion bottles cached in strategic spots around the premises window fans, electric fans, awnings and ice buckets?

WHEN IS THE proper time to draw the deadline and announce that from this moment forward is autumn and that sufficient unto summer was the paraphernalia thereof and henceforth it should be out of sight and mind?

Those who put it off will be tagged by their neighbors as slothful and picnic tables covered with snow will be irrefutable proof.

Those who give up on summer prematurely will be tagged "chicken," which is not as bad, because there's the possibility they may know something not everybody knows.

That's it. Inside knowledge.

It is going to be a long, hard winter. It will start early and last late.

Myriads of careless householders will be caught with their snow tires up and their storm windows down.

Auto radiators will be unfortified against freezing. Gloves will not be where they should be. Overshoes left over from last winter will be in a state of disrepair.

Furnace filters will need replacing. Furnace mechanisms will not have been checked over. No one will be able to find the snow shovel.

...THIS IS sure to happen again this year. It happens every year to people who see nothing wrong with snow on picnic tables.

They leave up badminton nets till Thanksgiving. They drink iced tea when snow is falling. It never occurs to them that when summer ends and autumn begins they should give up — the lucky stiff.

Debate on $11 Billion Tax Cut Just Beginning

By DAVID LAWRENCE

If any large corporation announced that it was going to borrow several billion dollars to give its customers a big reduction in prices, though the business itself had been running in the red for several years, most people would consider such a financial operation a certain forerunner of bankruptcy.

David Lawrence, runner of bankruptcy.

But to United States government is about to borrow $11 billion to give the people a tax reduction at a time when the Treasury is running deeply in the red and there's no prospect of deficits being removed for several years.

A bill providing such a tax reduction over the next two years has just been reported to the House of Representatives by the Democratic majority of the Ways and Means Committee. The Republican minority on the committee, however, has issued a lengthy statement contending that prosperity cannot be bought by borrowed money.

President Kennedy made arrangements to present over national television and radio facilities his argument for the passage of the tax bill. The minority, on the other hand, have no such opportunity to give their viewpoint to the same audiences.

The argument on the Democratic side is that the reduction in taxes will stimulate business. The Republicans' answer is that this cannot be done if the deficits continue indefinitely and if the dollar is reduced in purchasing power by inflation.

Several fiscal experts, including a former chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers and a former director of the budget, have testified that inflation is a certainty if the deficits keep up.

THE HOUSE Ways and Means Committee minority report says:

"As of June 30, 1963, the Kennedy administration had already added $19.8 billion to the public debt, and now proposes a program of tax reduction coupled with increased expenditures which will add at least another $50 billion to the debt, and with no plans of reducing or paying off these additions to the debt at any time.

"Not only is this morally wrong, most of our states have laws making it a crime for an individual to incur bills which he does not intend to pay. It's a fraud.

"By continuing to spend and borrow, and through tax reduction to avoid our responsibility to pay our bills, we will pass on to our children an unbearable burden of public debt. Repudiation may be the only course open to them. The ever-increasing public debt places in jeopardy the savings of the American people their life insurance, and their expectations for pensions and old age security. That also is why this tax cut program is morally wrong."

Quoted in the minority report is the testimony of Dr. Arthur F. Burns, former chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers, who declared that "the danger of inflation and the risk of devaluation of the dollar are being understated these days."

He predicted that the public debt might increase by an additional $75 billion by fiscal 1972. Cited also is the view of Maurice Stans, former director of the budget, who has testified to his belief that there might be deficits aggregating $100 billion to $150 billion.

THE MINORITY report says, moreover, that, regardless of whether $50 billion, $75 billion, $100 billion or $150 billion is the amount, it is "indisputable that the bill increases the need for additional deficit financing at the very time when the financing of existing deficits presents a major problem."

The minority report of the House committee asserts that the tax burden is excessive and that steeply progressive rate should be reduced, but argues that "tax reduction should be accompanied by a reduction, and not an increase, in the level of government expenditures."

The report adds that "this was the Republican position in 1947, and again in 1954." The minority declaration says further:

"In 1954, the Eisenhower administration made a concentrated effort to reduce government spending. This enabled the Republicans to reduce taxes by $7.4 billion, $4.6 billion of which went directly to individuals. . . . This remarkable reduction of $9.7 billion in the level of government spending made possible the largest tax reduction in any single year in the history of our country. The 1954 tax reduction was followed by budget surpluses for fiscal 1956 and 1957.

"In contrast with the fiscal policy of the Republican's tax reduction programs, the Kennedy administration proposes tax reduction of $11 billion in the face of a $9 billion deficit, and planned increases in expenditures of at least $3 billion, and more likely $5 billion, per year thereafter."

THE ENTIRE argument of the administration is based upon the theory that business will be stimulated by increased consumer spending as a result of the tax cut, that this will mean higher tax receipts, and that, though the increased revenue will not be enough to balance the budget, it will help to decrease, if not eliminate, deficits some time in future years.

In reply to this, many economists are saying that the important factor in consumer spending will be the resistance to price increases which they believe will become inevitable.

So the debate over whether a tax cut of $11 billion should be made, without a corresponding decrease in public spending, is one that is only now just beginning.

History Today

Today is Thursday, Sept. 19, the 262nd day of 1963. There are 103 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1859, composer Dan Emmett first sang his composition, "Dixie," at a performance by Brant's Minstrels in New York City. The tune was first used as a Confederate song at the inauguration of Jefferson Davis in 1861.

On this date In 1796, George Washington delivered his historic farewell address.

In 1870, the siege of Paris began in the Franco-Prussian War following the surrender of Versailles to the Germans.

In 1881, President James Garfield died in Elberon, N.J., of gunshot wounds inflicted by an assassin.

In 1955, Argentine dictator Juan Peron was overthrown.

"You Realize, of Course, This Whole Thing's Ridiculous!"

Peace Corps Opportunities

By VICTOR RIESEL

At a Washington reception the other day, King Mohammed Zahir of Afghanistan sat alongside President George Meany of the AFL-CIO. His Highness does not speak English. Meany, who loves to describe himself as a plumber, does not speak Farsi, so he could not really get around to learning from His Excellency how things are in Kabul.

Victor Riesel, author of the article.

But later a member of the royal entourage confided to another visitor that things have been much better for the United States in Kabul. Much of his improvement in the far off Asiatic city, where the Russians are quite cocky, is due to 35 Americans who work as volunteer printers, mechanics, plumbers and teachers in an effort to help the Afghans improve their country. And more such volunteers are needed.

I checked on how many more, and came up with some news which may startle those who deal with unemployment in the U.S. There are 7,000 jobs available across the world. In a year the total will jump to 13,000.

Of these jobs, some 800 are in the category of construction workers. Another 400 openings call for mechanics.

I HAVE HEARD much outcry for work in these fields. Yet here are 1,200 openings available immediately. No one works for nothing. There is pay; there is travel; there is a two years' worth of clothing allowances; there is a month's paid vacation and there is a chance to do something for the people of many lands—including the people of the U. S. who are in dire need of friends across the world.

These are not jungle jobs. These are for volunteers for urban and rural community development projects. There are openings for plumbers, bricklayers, masons — the whole gamut of building trades.

Bricklayers and carpenters, for example, are specifically needed in Peru, Honduras, Colombia, Malaya and Pakistan need general construction skills.

Any electrician wanting to see a new corner of the world can find a job in Honduras and in those Peruvian projects, from which I've come only recently.

GABON IN AFRICA needs plumbers. Anybody who can build anything can find work in Malaya, Cyprus, Ecuador and India.

Gabon, for example, wants Americans who can build three room school houses. In addition to constant need for construction hands, other countries need mechanics — even the do-it-yourself, self-educated chaps, so long as they can tear apart a motor and put it together so it can run again.

It makes no sense for mechanics — and hundreds of machinists — to go jobless here for any reason while work pay, world travel and the hospitality of grateful people await them elsewhere.

In India, which faces a tough Chinese enemy in the East, there is a need for skilled mechanics to assist in the maintenance and repair of mobile health vehicles. There is desperate need to repair these vehicles. Few local workers have the ability to handle the equipment. Peace Corps volunteers are needed to instruct Indians in the refurbishing of these motors.

THE VOLUNTEERS from the U.S. will not only receive special training, but also courses in Indian culture and Asiatic history. The Americans will work in state maintenance shops and on mobile repair units in several states in Northern India — one of the world's most beautiful regions.

I write no travelogue here, I report bluntly that there are opportunities for laymen of all ages above 18 to earn a living abroad for two years and return with such skills and experiences that jobs will not be difficult to find in the U.S. thereafter.

To work at such assignments not only in Afghanistan, India and other parts of the world, the applicant needs a high school diploma, or a graduate certificate from a trade or technical school, or he must be a graduate apprentice. Union members who want to retire early also are eligible if they want to make room for others right here in the U.S.

THERE ARE thousands of other jobs in the clerical field, or on telephone switchboards, or as nurses — not only for those who are registered graduates but also for those with practical experience. There is also work in foreign rural areas for those people who have lived on American farms and who are not college graduates. There are scores of categories of vacant jobs. In all there are 13,000 openings.

Vitamin pills were designed to make people feel strong enough to sit and wait to the doctor's office all afternoon.

Isn't this the time for some of the unemployed here to help our country help other peoples and at the same time help themselves?

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: A friend of mine has an irritating habit. If you say her behavior is acceptable I'll try to overlook it. Please reply in the paper because I know of others who wonder about this person, too.

She's forever turning over the china to see if it's the genuine stuff. She examines silver the same way. I've seen her fingering my table linen and my draperies to determine the quality of fabric. Most people can look at a picture and enjoy it, but not her. She has to touch it to see if it's really done in oil.

I will admit the woman is cultured, refined and knowledgeable but this habit of hers raises my blood pressure. Will you please comment? — PLAIN FOLKS.

Dear Folks: I don't agree that the woman is cultured and refined. Cultured and refined people don't examine articles for hallmarks nor do they handle fabrics to test the quality while visiting in the homes of friends.

And I don't agree that she is knowledgeable. If the woman knew her stuff she wouldn't have to touch and scrutinize everything. She'd know.

Sneak Thief

Dear Ann: Our 7-year-old son has been taking odds and ends from the homes of neighbors and friends. Sometimes he takes objects from the nearby novelty store or the drug store.

He doesn't need, or even want, many of the items he takes. He just enjoys carrying things off without being caught. When he brings the stolen objects home he proudly presents them to me.

I have scolded him repeatedly and explained that it is wrong to steal. I always insist that he take each object back and leave it somewhere on the premises. After he has returned everything he tells me, and I then forgive him. His father learned of this yesterday. Strangely enough the boy blurted out, "Let's tell daddy our secret." My husband was shocked and then furious. He says something must be done but we don't know what.

It was his idea to write to you. Can you help? — TROUBLED HOUSE.

Dear Troubled: Without meaning to, you have encouraged the boy's stealing by making a game of it. He doesn't see anything wrong with sneaking things out so long as he is able to sneak them back in.

You must tell him that if he takes anything else he will have to hand it to the owner and confess that he stole it. Go along with him to make sure he does it.

If this does not cure him, the boy needs professional help. Youngsters who steal usually have deep-seated emotional problems.

Unclaimed Gift

Dear Ann: Six months ago our office supervisor took up a collection to buy a gift for a girl who was getting married and leaving the office. The girl said the gift was too bulky to carry home on public transportation but she promised to drive in the following week and pick it up.

The gift is still in the office and none of us has received a thank-you note. It seems evident that this girl has no intention of picking up the gift and that she cares nothing for it.

It's too late to return the gift for a refund. We've asked the supervisor to please do something about the gift but still it sits here. If you have any suggestions we'd like to hear them — since everyone's money is involved. — PUZZLED.

Dear Puzzled: The supervisor should phone the girl and tell her if she doesn't come for the gift within the week it will be auctioned off to the highest bidder. Then put it on the block.

Confidentially

TO NO HORSE SENSE: Hundreds of readers have written to say there is a book which can smarten you up on "horse talk." It is "The Horseman's Encyclopedia," by Margaret Cabell Self. Your library has it.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Salem News, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Father of Dione Quints Hits Story

CALLANDER, Ont. (AP)—The father of the Dione quintuplets said today his famous daughters' story about a hard and unhappy childhood is untrue.

"There are two sides to every story and Mrs. Dione and I have ours," said Oliva Dione in an interview in the rambling farm house the family lived in before the quint were born. The mansion where the five sisters grew up was sold in 1957, and the parents moved back to the home-stand.

He expressed dismay over the publication of a magazine article in which the four surviving sisters said: "It was the saddest home we ever knew."

Dione said "the magazine article is full of untruths."

"I cannot understand why the girls, who will be 30 next May, should after all these years suddenly hold their parents up to public ridicule and dishonor," he said.

"I hate to think it was for financial gain, but if it wasn't for that, what was it?"

In their story, told to writer James Brough and published Wednesday in McCall's magazine, the girls complained of hardships, misery and rejection by their parents and other brothers and sisters.

"Our conscience is clear," said Dione. "Mrs. Dione and I may not have been the best parents in the world and we undoubtedly made many mistakes, but we tried our best under very trying circumstances."

The quint spent their first seven years in a special government nursery at Callander, but were returned to their father after his long legal battle with Dr. Allan Dafoe, who had delivered them.

year, which started July 1, and $98 billion for next year.

This would mean cuts of about $1 billion from this year's spending and perhaps as much as $3 billion to $4 billion from next year's which has not yet been estimated in detail.

Denouncing "credit card government," Miller, a New York congressman, told the networks in his telegrams asking equal time that millions of Americans in both parties disagree with what he called the "formula of living it up today through huge spending and charging the bills to our children and reducing federal revenues."

Without spelling it out, Kennedy lit into the earlier Republican proposal—and tried also to counter an expected slowdown in the Senate that might delay the bill until next year.

"Very few are openly opposed to cutting taxes," he said. "But there are those who, for one reason or another, hope to delay this bill, or to attach ruinous amendments, or to water down its effect."

"It must not be diluted by amendments or conditions. It must not be sent back to the House Ways and Means Committee. It must not be put off until next year."

"This nation needs a tax cut now—not a tax cut 'if'—not a tax cut 'when'—not a tax cut in the future or a tax cut for the few."

Some Democrats were quick to say the President's effort had improved their chances in the crucial votes next week.

Leetonia High Students At Village Council Session

LEETONIA — Village council met last evening in the office of Mayor Ralph Kennedy and welcomed six students from the government class at the Leetonia High School, Keith Marshall, Sue Sanders, Shirley Stratton, John Rupert, Pete Fraser and Robert Woodall, who were there to observe.

Dan Butch clerk, reported $7,700.95 in the general and street fund. Payment of bills for the last two weeks in August and the first two weeks in September were approved. It was decided to withhold payment for the recently purchased road grader until the next meeting.

The mayor reported that his office received $220.10 in fines in collections in August.

A year's payment for insurance on the City Hall will be paid to David Patterson agent for the company holding the policy.

Charles Wright, district manager for the Ohio Fuel Gas Company, was present and expressed appreciation for the cooperation given his company in the past. The gas company will move its office from Leetonia to Columbiana in the near future.

A letter from the Cleveland office of the Pennsylvania Railroad was read, saying it is considering the installation of automatic signals at the two unguarded crossings and will advise Council of further action.

Mayor Kennedy announced that the new part of the cemetery will be graded this fall, and Council agreed to repair the driveway at the home of Thomas Fraser of Oak St.

It was decided to order 100 tons of ashes for use on the streets during the coming winter.

Members of council will look at the alley behind the Sunoco station on Columbia Street to see what work will have to be done to make it usable.

A request from the volunteer fire department was read, asking to have the shrubbery on the island in front of the fire station removed. Council agreed to the removal provided the fire department plants some shrubbery on the north side of the city hall.

Mayor Kennedy reported that the disposal plant is handling a capacity load now with complete satisfaction.

A committee will be appointed in the near future to investigate the possibilities of zoning for the village.

The next meeting will be at 7 p.m. Oct. 2 in the mayor's office.

2nd Negro Starts To School At Ole Miss University

OXFORD, Miss. (AP) — Cleveland McDowell, now the only Negro student at the University of Mississippi since the graduation of James H. Meredith, expects to be treated like any other student.

McDowell, 21, registered Wednesday for the fall term at the university's law school — his second semester.

Like Meredith, he drove to school in a small, foreign sports car. He purchased the auto from Meredith.

Like Meredith's later days at the university, he drew some stares but no jeers or catcalls.

Like Meredith, he was housed in a dormitory on campus. He and Meredith shared a room in Baxter Hall dormitory during the summer. This term, he is in Leavelle Hall. Both McDowell and school officials refused to say if he had a roommate.

Unlike Meredith, McDowell was not accompanied Wednesday by federal marshals nor army troops.

He refused to talk to newsmen.

BLUEPRINT FOR YOUR SON'S LIFE

Good habits formed early in life are the foundation stones of sound character development. Parents cannot hand their son such ready-made habits on a silver platter. But fortunately, there is a better way to accomplish this same objective: Provide the boy with an opportunity which will enable him to develop the habits himself. A wonderful opportunity exists in newspaperboy training.

Through his own newspaperboy business, a lad develops self-confidence, tact, thrift, punctuality and friendliness. He learns how to get along with people and how to accept responsibility. He knows the tremendous inner satisfaction that can come from serving mankind in a worthwhile endeavor. It is no surprise that parents, teachers, and youth leaders consider newspaperboy training a fine blueprint for a boy's successful future.

Beaver, Pa. Youth Acquitted In Murder

BEAVER, Pa. (AP) — Walter Hlista Jr. is a free young man today—free of a murder charge that hung over his head since last February when his police chief father was shot to death.

A Beaver County jury acquitted the 19-year-old defendant Wednesday, and he returned to his home where last Feb. 28 his father was shot five times with his own service revolver.

The jury of ten women and two men deliberated almost four hours before returning the verdict.

Defense attorney John Conte had argued that the defendant was emotionally disturbed the night of the shooting. Dist. Atty. Richard P. Steward had asked for a first-degree murder conviction.

Kennedy Is Concerned Over Recession Possibility

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy has had to feel his way toward the $11-billion tax cut he asked the people to support Wednesday night in his television and radio broadcast.

His argument can be put this way:

Taxes are too high and have been for years. If they're cut, people and corporations will have more money to spend. This, by pepping up the economy, will be insurance against another recession.

Concern about a recession has been on his mind since he took office in 1961 although the word "recession" can be a delicate one with presidents.

President Eisenhower on Jan. 18, 1961 — two days before he turned over the White House to Kennedy — told Congress in his economic report that there had been a "decline" in the economy. Kennedy went a lot stronger than that 11 days later. In his State of the Union Message to Congress on Jan. 29, 1961, Kennedy said: "We take office in the wake of seven months of recession, three and a half years of slack."

He pointed back to the recession of 1958 — which Eisenhower at the time had also called a recession — and said this country's recovery from that one was incomplete.

By the end of June 1961, after he had been in office six months, he reported the United States "had emerged from the recession." But fear of another one was high in his mind, as he showed later.

He referred Wednesday night, as he had before, to four recessions since the war: 1948-49; 1953-54; 1958-59; and 1960-61. He said high tax rates had helped cause the last two recessions.

In his first year Kennedy proposed various measures to bolster the economy but by 1962 he had definitely settled on a tax cut as a program to pursue, although in the beginning he only inched up to the problem.

In his budget message in January 1962, Kennedy didn't ask for a direct tax cut but suggested Congress give him stand-by authority to cut taxes if the economy began to show sickness.

Later in the year he went further and talked of wanting Congress to cut taxes across the board for individuals and corporations in 1963, a cut applying to 1963 income. This didn't get anywhere.

But, starting out this year, he made the across-the-board tax cut his major program for 1963. It eventually became apparent, as this tardy Congress dawdled along, that even if it approved a cut it wouldn't apply to 1963 income.

Then last week he got over his first big hurdle when the House Ways and Means Committee, which handles tax matters, approved 17 to 8 a tax cut of $11 billion.

Fifteen Democrats and two Republicans teamed up to approve the measure over the opposition of eight Republicans. Approval by this committee was a necessary preliminary before the full House could get a chance to vote on it. The full House tackles it next week. And Wednesday night Kennedy used some of his television time to take a swipe at foes of the bill, mostly Republicans. Republicans quickly announced they will demand equal television time to answer.

But even if the House gives Kennedy the tax cut he wants, there can't be any tax reduction unless the Senate also approves and it may be weeks before a Senate committee even begins hearings, and more weeks before there can be a full vote on the bill in the Senate, if it ever gets there.

In his economic report last January Kennedy said in the 1948-49 and 1953-54 recessions a tax cut had helped check the decline and spur recovery.

Congress cut taxes $4.7 billion in 1948, just before the full impact of the recession was felt. The upturn began in October, 1949.

In the 1953-54 recession individual, corporate and excise tax reductions cost the government, Kennedy figured, about $7.4 billion in revenue. That recession ended in August 1954.

But Kennedy said it might have ended sooner if the cuts had been made sooner. There's no recession in sight now, Kennedy takes the position a tax cut before there is a recession will help avoid it.

The main protest of his opponents is that it's poor economy to reduce government revenue, through a tax cut, when government spending is outdistancing government income.

30 Days to Better Grades

Basic Rule: Think Before Plunging Into Examination

By The Reading Laboratory, Inc.
It's just as important to know how to take a test as it is to know how to prepare for it.

Bring plenty of paper to the test. If you use a fountain pen, bring a bottle of ink, too. Always bring two ballpoint pens, or if you use pencils bring at least two well-sharpened ones. You can write faster with ballpoints than with fountain pens and there's not much chance of smearing or blotting the ink.

You should get there on time but not early. One or two panicky students running around before the test can make everybody nervous. If you have a few butterflies in your stomach, don't worry about them; they'll go away when the test starts.

WHEN YOU GET THE TEST, read the instructions very carefully. A minute spent reading instructions can save you a lot of time and trouble. (For instance, there may be 10 questions on the test, but the instructions may tell you to do only seven.)

Then read over the entire test. Look for ambiguous questions and clear them up with the teacher. Figure out approximately how much time you can afford to spend on each question. Stick to your time budget as closely as possible.

Answer the questions you know best first. Don't waste time sweating over something you don't know. Finish the test, then come back to ones you couldn't figure out immediately.

One very important rule: THINK before you start writing. If the questions are essay type, make a mental outline of your answer before you begin to write. Be sure you know exactly what you want to say—that way you won't ramble off the point in your answer. Some students prefer to begin each essay answer with a written outline of what their answer will cover. Beginning each answer with an outline is a highly recommended practice—if you're sure that your answer is the correct one. Remember that an outline lays everything out in its bare bones—if you're wrong, your teacher is bound to catch you. On the other hand, an outline will help make each answer clear and precise, and every teacher appreciates clarity and precision. He will have a natural tendency to raise your grade for clearly-written answers.

IF IT'S A MULTIPLE-CHOICE test, answer all the ones you're sure of first—these are your stronger-response answers. Then work on the ones you're not so sure of. On a weak response question—when you're in doubt—your first choice will usually be the best one. The longer you ponder, the more possibilities you'll think of and the more confused you'll get. For the same reason, never change an answer on a multiple-choice test unless you're really positive your first answer was wrong. On a weak response question, trust your first response.

Take all the time allotted. You don't get any points for being the first one to finish.

When your teacher returns the test, see what you did wrong and find out what the right answers were. They may come up again on a later test. You should also make a note on the type of test your teacher gave and what kind of questions he asked. You'll have a better idea of what to expect the next time around.

(NEXT: Some tips for test-taking.)

King Says 4 Girls Killed by Bomb 'Did Not Die In Vain'

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — "God still has a way of bringing good out of evil," he assured the parents Wednesday. "The innocent blood of these little girls may well serve as a redemptive force for this city."

Denise McNair, 11, Addie Mae Collins and Cynthia Wesley, both 14, were buried a day following the funeral of the fourth victim of Sunday's unsolved bombing, Carole Robertson, 14.

Still to be buried, next Sunday, are two young Negro victims of violence that broke out a few hours after the bombing of the Sixteenth Street Baptist Church. Police estimated that 4,000, including numerous white persons, went to the funeral although only about half that number could get inside the Sixth Avenue Baptist Church, across town from the church where the girls met their deaths while studying a lesson on "the love that forgives."

Two of the 23 persons injured when the bomb went off were still hospitalized, as was a 16-year-old white boy struck in the head by a brick.

FBI bomb experts and city and state authorities continued to seek clues leading to the person who placed the fatal bomb, while rewards for his capture climbed to $76,000.

PEOPLES SERVICE DRUG STORES

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruise —

Dear Folks: I came across the greatest little idea a few months ago and I thought I should pass it along to you.

There are many of us who sleep on heating pads and use them daily for many different reasons. Also many of us use foot warmers. Others use hot water bottles, etc.

Have you ever thought of making a cover out of corduroy for any or all of these gadgets? I did.

Gals, what a difference this made in the "heating session". The gadget was padded with softness, the heat seemed to distribute better, and the soft, velvety corduroy was so nice next to my skin. To say nothing of the cleanliness of the cover in my bed... or the beauty for those of you who keep heating pads in chairs. They can be covered to match any decor. Wide wale corduroy gives the pad a softness when under the afflicted parts. When laid on top of the body the corduroy holds the pad in place and keeps it from sliding off shoulder or leg.

MOST PEOPLE who use heating pads perspire. These corduroy covers may be removed easily and washed in the basin with a mild detergent and rinsed in warm water to which about one-fourth cup of vinegar has been added. This will leave it nice and soft. Do NOT rinse the vinegar water out. There will be no odor when it dries.

The cover can be thrown in the washing machine and dryer, shaken or brushed a few times with that old brush and it will look like new. No ironing required...

These little heating pad covers (which you can make yourself for practically nothing) make wonderful gifts for the sick or for friends who use heating pads, such as arthritics, or for the Mom and Pop who "Have Everything"—or to put on the heating pad just to warm the bed on cold nights before crawling in and snuggling off...

Gift a gift... that others can't buy! A washable cover for a heating pad, water bottle or foot warmer. It's quite inexpensive, too.

CHRISTMAS will be here before you know it. Make lots of them and have them on hand. Make your gifts way before time and have them ready when that day comes whether it be for a holiday, birthday or a gift for an old friend.

Here's how to make them: It takes one-half yard of corduroy to make a cover for the average heating pad. (Measure your pad first and add about two inches.)

Fold the material in half (it comes in various widths.) Stitch it up on your machine (or by hand) just like you would a pillowslip. Hem the edge.

Now... you can either go first class (if you are adept) and put grippers (bought at dime store) or snaps, or buttons and button holes or... if you are real lazy as I am... fasten the end with small safety pins! I like pins. No extra effort. Remove when you wash the cover!

FOR THOSE who like to give little gifts to sick people this is a wonderful idea. It is something they do not have, never will have unless given one, and cannot possibly buy, as I have never seen any on the market. It's an inexpensive gift and takes only about five minutes to make. And did you know... that while you are making these if the person just happens to use a hot water bottle or an ice pack, matching covers can be made out of the same material? What a wonderful gift.

And if you have any scraps left over, don't throw them away. They make terrific dusting and polishing cloths, whether used with or without furniture polish. And just try corduroy for polishing a car... great.

HELOISE. Dear Heloise: Here is an idea for those empty bleach jugs. Toddlers and crawling youngsters chasing a rolling, tinkling toy. You will find them fascinated with a colorful, round plastic bottle rolling along in front of them, particularly when you have dropped two or three tiny bells or a few pebbles in the bottle to produce that elusive, fascinating rattle.

To make this toy, take one of your clean round plastic bottles, drop in two or three bells or some pebbles. Coat the neck of the bottle (the threads on the neck) and the threads inside the bottle cap with a good dependable glue.

Put the cap on the bottle tight. Let stand overnight to dry thoroughly — and you have a new toy for the youngster (or for your pet, if you have a pet as spoiled as mine).

The cap can't come off, and the toy is unbreakable as far as a child is concerned. I keep my eye on my pet, "Peanuts," when he is tossing his little bottle around; he might decide he wants to chew a hole in the bottle just to see what makes it tick!

I made one for a neighbor's child... and I still can't decide who has the most fun, the baby or "Peanuts."

Tracy Notes Contradicting Pay Records for State Group

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—It will be up to the state attorney general's office, says State Auditor Roger W. Tracy, to resolve a situation in which officials of a state board appear to have received more pay than records indicate they earned.

The agency in question is the State Board of Examiners of Architects.

An examiner from Tracy's staff reported that 10 officials and former officials of the Architect Examiners Board had received more than $13,000 in per diem pay and overtime or time not properly accounted for. The period covered was from Aug. 9, 1959, through April 16, 1963.

Tracy did not make an accusation of purposeful dishonesty. He blamed what he considered inadequate board minutes.

"Because of the very nature of the board's activities," Tracy said Wednesday night, "there is little doubt but that the various members actually rendered the days of service claimed. The difficulty hinges upon the fact that the neglect in maintaining the records made it impossible to substantiate the claims."

The examiner cited as "typical of the laxity in the maintenance of records," that as of the conclusion of the audit in May 1963, the minutes had yet to be written for two board meetings in both 1961 and 1962.

Board minutes that were recorded, Tracy's office said, showed that members got their per diem allowances even when occasionally absent from board meetings.

"Expense accounts indicate trips to Columbus by two or three out of town members in 1961, on April 19 and 20, May 15 and 16, and July 13, but the minute book shows no board meetings on those dates," said the report. When the board members and officials were told of the audit results, Tracy said, they replied with detailed explanations of services performed. Ralph C. Kempton, the board's executive secretary, laid the major share of the blame for the problem upon a combination of inadequate appropriations and insufficient staff personnel to handle a constantly increasing workload.

The examiner criticized a $1,161 expense allowance paid Kempton, apparently over and above expenses he paid, and took exception to certain overtime pay drawn by board clerk Hazel Hayes.

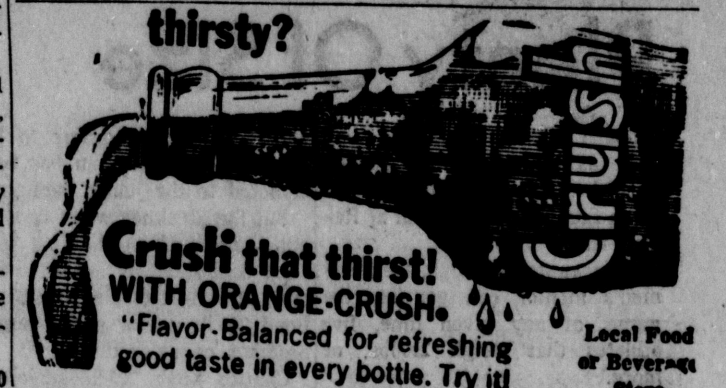

The examiner said official records showed 262 days of service by board personnel while total reimbursements covered 898 days. He broke down a total of $9,540 in per diem and overtime pay for which supporting records have not been found:

Harold H. Munger, Toledo, board president, $2,085; George S. Voynich, Cleveland, vice president, $1,170; George F. Schatz Cincinnati board member, $1,890; Arthur F. Siddells Warren, secretary, $600; Fred E. Feytag, Sidney, assistant secretary $120, and former board members Frederick J. Hobbs, Jr., Columbus, $1,755, Charles E. Firestone, Canton, $1,200, and R. Franklin Outcalt Cleveland $720.

Champ Uses Unorthodox Putting Style

Shave Retains Ohio Open Title By 2 Strokes; Cassidy Is Second

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's Open Golf championship, won Wednesday for the second straight time by Bob Shave Jr. of Wiloughby, probably will grow into a $10,000 fixture next year.

This year's pot of $4,000 was the top of the teaching professionals have shot for in some time—Shave picked up $650 for his three-day 10-under-par stint — and sponsors said the loot would be more than doubled in 1964.

For the last four years professionals sharpened by the national tour have taken the Buckeye crown. Frank Stranahan of Toledo did it in 1960 and 1961, and then Shave took over with his unorthodox putter.

Shave led after every round as he carved out scores of 66, 71, 69 and 72 over Walnut Hills Country Club's 6,740 - yard par 72 course. But he had to stave off a big challenge by Circleville's 20-year-old Tom Cassidy to take the title.

Shave led by four strokes at the end of 36, and he and Cassidy carded 69s in Wednesday's morning session. But in the stretch drive the long-hitting "Roundtown" star banged his tee shot in the 340-yard first hole and dropped a 10-foot putt for an eagle duce. He was only one stroke back at the end of five holes, but he bogied the eighth, ninth and tenth to stifle his chances.

Shave's gallery was more interested in his putting method than in his score. He uses a mallet-type putter, grasping the top with his thumb-up hand as a fulcrum. His right hand is on the club shaft, about 15 inches from the top, and he stands facing the hole with the putter swinging between his feet like a pendulum. He holed some impossible putts, too.

Cassidy received $450 to assuage his disappointment, while 20-year-old Tom Weiskopf of Bedford led the amateurs with 282 and received $200 in merchandise. Brad Anderson, 25-year-old Columbus pro, wound up with a 66 and a 286 total good for third in the professional field. Eddie Griffiths, former champion from Chagrin Falls, was next with 287—and no one else bettered or matched par for the long, dusty, hot route.

Charles Stamm of Cambridge and Ock Willowet of Dayton scored 149 each for the first 36 holes to tie for the seniors' crown. They received $125 each. Bob Kepler, Ohio State's coach, and Wilbur Brandenburg of Columbus were next among the oldsters (50 and over) with 152, good for $82.50 each, while Jim Cirigliano of Lorain picked up $25 for his 164.

Salem's Suggett Is 3rd In Points Race At Canfield

With only two more weeks of stock car racing remaining at Canfield Speedway the amateur point-championship is a wide open race.

So drivers will be going all out in a last ditch effort in the 50-lap season championship duel Saturday night. There will be a full schedule of amateur events plus the regular late model card.

Bill Larson, 1962 amateur champion at Canfield, is back on top of the list with 1110 points, with Jerry Kavinsky of Youngstown right on his heels with 1015. Should Larson falter this Saturday night or in the finale Kavinsky could step in to grab the crown.

KENNY SUGGETT of Salem follows with 775 points. Frank Buccella of Warren has 600, Bud Miller of Garrettsville 590, Gary Walters, of Niles 555 and Lew Parker of Struthers 450.

Following in order are Jim Metlicka of Warren, Bud Comm of Boardman, Earl Felicity of Warren, Ron Christoff of Youngstown Vince Carbone of Niles, Gus DeLong of Struthers Bill Collier of Woodworth, Paul Miller of Struthers, Art Simcox of New Middletown, Dale Fuller of Youngstown Earl Tetter of Youngstown, Tom Wimer of North Jackson and Gary Cross of Girard.

All of these top stars will be in the amateur lineup Saturday night. However, they will have to gain a spot in the feature as only the fastest 25 will qualify.

Meanwhile, Bill Forney of Youngstown has wrapped up his fourth Canfield championship in five years. Forney has 1900 points to lead Jim Bickerstaff who has 1385. Regardless of what Forney does the final two nights he can not be passed. Mason Heister of Youngstown has clinched third spot.

Casy Stengel compiled a .284 lifetime batting average during his 14 years as a major league player.

Nen Socks Homer In 9th To Pave Way For LA

Cards' Pennant Hopes Crushed 6-5 By Dodgers In 13-Inning Marathon

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer
Dick Nen was in Oklahoma City Tuesday night, in St. Louis Wednesday night and in seventh heaven today.

Nen was the unknown commodity who turned into a valuable piece of merchandise with one swing of his bat as the National League - leading Los Angeles Dodgers crushed St. Louis' pennant hopes by edging the second-place Cardinals 6-5 in 13 innings.

Fight Results

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
TOKYO — Hiroyuki Ebihara, 112, Japan, knocked out Pone Kingpetch, 111, Thailand, 1. Ebihara won world flyweight title.

LIMA, Peru — Mauro Mina, 173½, Lima, outpointed Dave Russell, 173½, Uniondale, N.Y., 10.

STOCKTON Calif.—Rey Asis, 120, Stockton, knocked out Jose Cejudo, 117, Los Angeles, 5.

HONOLULU — Carlos Ortiz, 138½, New York, stopped Pete Acera, 135, Mindanao, 7, non-title.

A left-handed swinger, Nen, 23, saw the umpire give the home run sign.

"It was a strange feeling," Nen said. "The loss left the Cardinals with the almost impossible task of making up five games in the loss column with only seven games remaining. The Dodgers, meanwhile will return home to close out the season with a nine-game stand."

In other NL action Wednesday, Philadelphia belted the New York Mets 5-1 in the last baseball game to be played at the Polo Grounds, Milwaukee defeated San Francisco 6-4, the Chicago Cubs edged Pittsburgh 2-1 and Houston walloped Cincinnati 8-4.

The American League champion New York Yankees and Cleveland were not scheduled. The Cardinals built a 5-1 lead on a two-run homer by Charley James in the second inning off Pete Richter and a three-run third inning capped by Curt Flood's two-run double. Cardinal starter Bob Gibson took the lead and a four-hitter into the eighth.

A two-run single by Tommy Davis and a sacrifice fly by Willie Davis brought the Dodgers to within one run, then Nen tied it inside.

"I knew I hit it good, but I had no idea it was a home run until I saw the umpire give the home run sign."

The American League champion New York Yankees and Cleveland were not scheduled.

The Cardinals built a 5-1 lead on a two-run homer by Charley James in the second inning off Pete Richter and a three-run third inning capped by Curt Flood's two-run double. Cardinal starter Bob Gibson took the lead and a four-hitter into the eighth.

A two-run single by Tommy Davis and a sacrifice fly by Willie Davis brought the Dodgers to within one run, then Nen tied it inside.

Champ Uses Unorthodox, Putting Style

Shave Retains Ohio Open Title By 2 Strokes; Cassidy Is Second

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's Open Golf championship, won Wednesday for the second straight time by Bob Shave Jr. of Willoughby, probably will grow into a $10,000 fixture next year.

This year's pot of $4,000 was the tops the teaching professionals have shot for in some time—Shave picked up $650 for his three-day 10-under-par stint — and sponsors said the loot would be more than doubled in 1964.

For the last four years professionals sharpened by the national tour have taken the Buckeye crown. Frank Stranahan of Toledo did it in 1960 and 1961, and then Shave took over with his unorthodox putter.

Shave led after every round as he carved out scores of 66, 71, 69 and 72 over Walnut Hills Country Club's 6,740 - yard par 72 course. But he had to stave off a big challenge by Circleville's 20-year-old Tom Cassidy to take the title.

Shave led by four strokes at the end of 36, and he and Cassidy carded 68 in Wednesday's morning session. But in the stretch drive the long-hitting "Round-town" star banged his tee shot in the 240-yard first hole and dropped a 10-foot putt for an eagle deuce. He was only one stroke back at the end of five holes, but he bogied the eighth, ninth and tenth to stifle his chances.

Shave's gallery was more interested in his putting method than in his score. He uses a mallet-type putter, grasping the top with his thumb-up hand as a fulcrum. His right hand is on the club shaft, about 15 inches from the top, and he stands facing the hole with the putter swinging between his feet like a pendulum. He holed some impossible putts, too.

Cassidy received $450 to assuage his disappointment, while 20-year-old Tom Weiskopf of Bedford led the amateurs with 282 and received $200 in merchandise. Brad Anderson, 25-year-old Columbus pro, wound up with a 66 and a 288 total good for third in the professional field. Eddie Griffiths, former champion from Chagrin Falls, was next with 287—and no one else bettered or matched par for the long, dusty, hot route.

Charles Stamm of Cambridge and Ock Willowit of Dayton scored 149 each for the first 36 holes to tie for the seniors' crown. They received $125 each. Bob Kepler, Ohio State's coach, and Wilbur Brandenburg of Columbus were next among the oldsters (50 and over) with 152, good for $82.50 each, while Jim Cirigliano of Lorain picked up $25 for his 164.

Nen Socks Homer In 9th To Pave Way For LA

Cards' Pennant Hopes Crushed 6-5 By Dodgers In 13-Inning Marathon

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
Dick Nen was in Oklahoma City Tuesday night, in St. Louis Wednesday night and in seventh heaven today.

Nen was the unknown commodity who turned into a valuable piece of merchandise with one swing of his bat as the National League - leading Los Angeles Dodgers crushed St. Louis' pennant hopes by edging the second-place Cardinals 6-5 in 13 innings.

Fight Results

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
TOKYO — Hiroyuki Ebihara, 112, Japan, knocked out Pone Kingpetch, 111, Thailand, 1. Ebihara won world flyweight title.
LIMA, Peru — Mauro Mina, 173½, Lima, outpointed Dave Russell, 170½, Uniondale N.Y., 10.

STOCKTON Calif.—Rey Asis, 120, Stockton, knocked out Jose Cejudo, 117, Los Angeles, 5.
HONOLULU — Carlos Ortiz, 138½, New York, stopped Pete Acera, 135, Mindanao, 7, non-title.

A left-handed swinger, Nen, 23, was in Oklahoma City Tuesday playing for Spokane in the Pacific Coast League playoffs. With that ended, he was called up to the Dodgers and joined the club in St. Louis just before the final Wednesday night of the three-game series between the contenders.

When the Dodgers got involved in a late-inning shuffle, Nen wound up playing first base. He came up in the ninth inning with the Dodgers trailing 5-4 and immediately collected his first major league hit—a home run that tied the score.

The Dodgers went on to win in the 13th with the help of a two-base throwing error by Julian Javier as relief ace Ron Perranoski got credit for the victory that dropped the Cardinals four games behind and virtually out of the running.

"Nervous?" Nen exclaimed in answer to a question as reporters gathered around in the Dodgers dressing room. "I was scared stiff. I had no idea I'd be called upon."

Nen, who has averaged only one homer every 17 games in the PCL, said he hit a fast ball, low and inside.

"I knew I hit it good, but I had no idea it was a home run until I saw the umpire give the home run sign.

"It was a strange feeling." The loss left the Cardinals with the almost impossible task of making up five games in the loss column with only seven games remaining. The Dodgers, meanwhile, will return home to close out the season with a nine-game stand.

In other NL action Wednesday, Philadelphia belted the New York Mets 5-1 in the last baseball game to be played at the Polo Grounds, Milwaukee defeated San Francisco 6-4, the Chicago Cubs edged Pittsburgh 2-1 and Houston walloped Cincinnati 8-4.

The American League champion New York Yankees and Cleveland were not scheduled.

The Cardinals built a 5-1 lead on a two-run homer by Charley James in the second inning off Pete Richert and a three-run third inning capped by Curt Flood's two-run double. Cardinal starter Bob Gibson took the lead and a four-hitter into the eighth.

A two-run single by Tommy Davis and a sacrifice fly by Willie Davis brought the Dodgers to within one run, then Nen tied it in the ninth.

Perranoski, 16-3, took over in the eighth and checked the Cardinals on three hits until the Dodgers finally broke through against Lew Burdette, 9-12, in the 13th on a single by Willie Davis, the throwing error by Javier, who stumbled as he fielded Dick Tracowski's grounder, and a grounder by Willis on which the speedy Davis sped home.

Indians Show Poorest Gate Since 1945

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians—with only four more home dates—are headed for their poorest attendance at Municipal Stadium since 1945.

When the Indians wound up their home meetings with the New York Yankees Tuesday night, only 7,629 fans showed up to watch the Tribe's 3-2 triumph in 10 innings. Cleveland's home attendance now is 554,143 for 1963, compared to 716,076 for the entire 1962 season.

In 1945, the Indians drew only 558,182 persons. This year's club should surpass that in the three-game series with the Los Angeles Angels starting Friday night. The final home game is Tuesday against Minnesota.

Cleveland has a 73-81 mark now and is in sixth place, 2½ games behind the champion Yankees. A year ago, the Indians had a 74-80 place, but only 17 games behind of New York.

The Indians were idle Wednesday and have another off-day today.

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "Channing," ABC's new Wednesday night dramatic series may sound like the name of a Western but is a fictional university around which the stories are to be built.

Viewers who tuned in Wednesday night expecting to watch freshmen stuffing phone booths or the quarterback making a last-minute touchdown had a surprise.

Most of the premiere show took place in the death row and visiting room of a state prison. What little college atmosphere shown was strictly coincidental. But despite the iron bars and the hyperthyroid acting of guest star John Cassavetes playing a convicted murderer, the opening show was slow-moving, talky and over-loaded with fuzzy philosophy.

A young professor of English—the role assumed for the run of the show by Jason Evers—received a manuscript written in prison by the killer, is vastly impressed and then proceeds to become interested in the man and his fate.

The professor got almost hysterical because the killer of an old lady during a holdup was going to the gas chamber. The show however, was not exactly a preaching against capital punishment. In fact, it's hard to say exactly what point it was making.

At any rate, "Channing" was not very interesting to watch.

The new "Patty Duke Show," also on ABC, may not win that able young actress any new performing awards but as a comedy about a modern teen-ager it may amuse teen-agers — and maybe even teen-agers' parents.

NBC's "Temple Houston" will have its premiere tonight, 7:30-8:30 Eastern Daylight Time. It is a Western with a lawyer hero. At 9 ABC has the debut of its new "Jimmy Dean Show" a variety hour. It will be followed immediately by an hour special in which Sid Caesar and Edie Adams will co-star. Thereafter each will star in his own half-hour variety show, on alternate weeks.

Representative William E. Miller of New York, chairman of the Republican National Committee, will address Upper Ohio Valley Republicans at a $50 a plate fund raising dinner in Steubenville Thursday.

The dinner will be staged in the Steubenville Community Arena at 7 p.m., with several national and state political figures in attendance.

The dinner will be the major Republican fund raising event of 1963 for Jefferson, Belmont, Carroll, Columbiana and Harrison Counties.

Dinner tickets may be obtained by contacting George Perrault Jr. in Salem.

Country Club Pool Contract Awarded

The Whan Construction Co. of RD 2, Leetonia, has been awarded a contract to build a dam creating a new swimming area in the Salem Country Club Lake, the club's board of directors has announced.

Wells Vaughters said the work is to begin immediately, with a tentative completion date of Dec. 1.

The new swimming section will be adjacent to and include the present swimming area and will be created by putting in an earthenwork dam separating it from the main lake. Vaughters said the construction will make a "very desirable swimming area".

Ground Beef is a major part of our Meat Business, that is why we can and do always have fresh meat ground. We never use frozen meat. It costs less than fresh meat, but we can not maintain our quality with it, so we never use it. You can buy our Ground Beef, freeze it, knowing it has never been frozen and will be very good when you use it any way you wish.

YOU DO NOT GO

To a blacksmith to have your watch repaired, to the 5 & 10 to buy a diamond, to a first year medical student to have your appendix out even though he may be a nice guy.

So when you want a bowling ball why not buy the best, a Brunswick, and be custom fitted by people with 12 years measuring experience. 32 smart bowlers have taken advantage of our services this season and we are proud of the confidence they have placed in us.

A word from THERON at the Country Store

I believe in giving credit where credit is due and I think all the citizens of Columbiana County can be real proud of their sheriff's department. I perhaps know them a little better than the average citizen.

I doubt if there is a sheriff's department for many miles around which operates as smoothly and efficiently as does ours in this county.

The men were hired for their abilities and not to satisfy campaign promises.

This means they can do their work in a manner which will be fair to all citizens regardless of who they are.

The Doctor Says

By Dr. WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT

Want To Know How Long You'll Live?

Do you really want to know?

If you had only six months to live, would you want your doctor to tell you so? This poses a difficult problem for both you and your doctor.

But, just as none of us can know the day and the hour of our death, neither can your doctor give a clear-cut answer to the question of how long you are likely to live with a serious illness.

The maxim, "Where there is life there is hope," can just as truthfully be reversed. Where there is hope there is life.

Doctors now pretty generally believe that, when a person's condition is apparently hopeless, he should be advised against financial ruin by, for example, enlarging his business.

A doctor may with the utmost sincerity tell a man that he (the doctor) will advise him when he is strong enough to carry out such a project, even though he feels sure that that time will never come. In that way he does not destroy hope.

There is all the difference in the world between the spirit, the day-to-day will to live, in a dying man who has been told that his case is hopeless and one who believes there is a one in 1,000 chance that tomorrow will be better.

A DOCTOR DOES great harm when he callously, even though unintentionally, gives the impression that he has given up. As a result, a patient may in desperation commit suicide or may frantically seek help from a quack whose only interest is to get as much of the patient's money as he can before death closes in.

On the other hand, as we go among the sick we have to come to recognize that when the chips are down most persons can face up to anything, even death, if they have faith in those who care for them and do not feel abandoned.

THE QUESTION is often asked of us, "Do I have cancer?" If the answer is "no," the only problem is to get a certain type of neurotic patient to believe it. Such persons are relatively rare. Most people will react to the good news with genuine relief.

If the answer is "yes," the victim should certainly be told. How else can his doctor justify urging the radical operation that may save the patient's life?

If the operation reveals a condition that has progressed beyond the power of surgery to cure, or if later there is a recurrence, neither doctor nor patient should give up hope.

THERE IS ALWAYS the possibility of a breakthrough in the form of a new cure. Furthermore, rarely and for reasons not well understood as yet, a person with a seemingly hopeless disease has a spontaneous remission and goes on to live many more years. Even if there is no cure and no remission, his doctor can do much to make the dying patient's last days more comfortable and to keep alive the will to live even though it be for but a short time.

IRON LUNG JOURNEY — Carol Kaufman, 26, rests in her iron lung in University of Michigan Hospital at Ann Arbor, Mich., after a 900-mile flight in a twin-engine plane from Mexico City. Carol was stricken at Mexico City College with crippling polio last April. She could not be moved until the disease passed its critical stage. A medical team from the university started the flight with batteries to power the lung. At Monroe, La., the batteries failed, the plane landed and took on new batteries and completed the flight. She's from Chicago.
